GERMAN GAS CLOUDS MENACE ALSACE TOWNS

By Associated Press.

Reach Front in Force

PARIS, May 7.—American troops are continuing to arrive on the front in force, Premier Clemenceau told Marcel Huguenin, editor of the Echo de Paris, on returning today from a two-day visit to the front areas. The premier brought back, he said, a feeling of confidence in the invincibility of the Entente forces.

PARIS, May 7.—Active artillery fighting occurred last night on both sides of the Aire on the front southeast of Amiens, the office announces. The statement follows:

"The artillery on both sides was active north and south of Aire. A German raid against a small French post near guard was repulsed. In the same region we carried out a local action and brought back prisoners."

BRITISH TAKE PRISONERS.

LONDON, May 7.—The British made a successful raid last night near Neuville-Vitasse, southwest of Arras, the war office reports. Three machine guns were captured. The statement reads:

"We carried out a successful raid last night in the neighborhood of Neuville-Vitasse on the front recently taken over by Canadians and captured a few prisoners and three machine guns with slight casualties to our troops. A raid attempted by enemy near Boyelles was repulsed. There is nothing further to report."

ORDERS FOR GAS MASKS ISSUED.

GENEVA, May 7.—The authorities at Mulhausen, Alsace, ordered all inhabitants to procure gas masks before May 15 to protect "against aerial gas attacks," the Lusanne Guardian says it learns. The truth of the matter is, the newspaper says, that owing to contrary winds large quantities of poison gas employed by the Germans are now drifting gradually toward us along the Rhine which already are feeling the effects of gas.

BATTLE WITH U-BOAT REPORTED.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—A fight between the American steamer Tidewater and a German submarine on March 17, in which the submarine was defeated and perhaps sunk, was reported today by the Navy Department. The Navy Department announcement said:

"The commander of the armed guard on the steamer Tidewater reports to the Navy Department that on March 17, about 10 p.m. a submarine was sighted off the starboard bow heading toward the vessel, about 150 yards off. As the ship turned to meet the submarine by not more than 20 feet. The U-boat then submerged. The ship's guns were brought to bear and first shot hit some distance ahead of her wake."

"The pointer fired the second shot and had what the captain, engineer, myself and other members of the crew call a clean hit and were satisfied it was effective. The third shot fired by the boatswain's mate, in charge of the after gun, he having her spotted and firing in the position she last merged. We resumed our course and commenced zigzagging, dinging by for an attack, but the submarine did not appear."

NER TYLER SUNK BY SUBMARINE.

W YORK, May 7.—The American steamship Tyler, formerly an old iron freighter, has been torpedoed and sunk off the French coast, according to information received in Europe. Eleven members of the crew were killed or died.

is Way Indian Head Soldier in France Deserves His Position. "We are right in action," writes Capt. Raymond Sparks, of Battery 10th Field Artillery, France, to his mother, Mrs. L. L. Sparks, of Indian Head. "I am feeling fine. I have now seen by the papers that we are right in action."

Secretary Baker praised the American troops when they went into battle. That means us. We were first American troops to land on German soil. I am not the least bit worried, as I have been in many long enough to be happy in any circumstances. I have been near where "Fritz" dropped many, but I am none the worse for experience.

you have any good things to eat, forget us in the trenches. I have a knitted sweater from Aunt Campbell, for which I am very grateful. I don't see how any good American boys who have mothers and sisters could wait to be drafted into service. They should be here in France and see the atrocities the Germans have committed."

LLEWELLYN LOST LIFE WHEN BOAT STRUCK ON ROCKS

As you know we were aboard the ill fated steamer Tuscania which was torpedoed off the north coast of Ireland, 7.50 P. M. February 1918.

On this particular day Thomas was well and in fine spirits and when we were struck marched to his lifeboat station with coolness got off in the boat assigned to him and got safely away from the ship. All went well with the boat until the shores of the Isle of Islay were reached just off the Scottish coast.

By this time the sea had become very rough and being dark about 2 A. M. of February 6 the boat was broken to pieces on the rocks before the occupants realized their danger. Though all were equipped with and had on life belts they were of little use on such a rocky coast.

Thomas' body was recovered the next day and together with others was buried with military honors by the survivors assisted by the Scottish authorities and the people of the island. The kind Scottish people were very tender in their care of both the living and the dead and lavished a profusion of flowers on the caskets of those who are no longer with us. Poor fellows now sleeping thus in sleep with the solemn music of the ocean breaking against the stony rock cliff this will be their requiem. Gone but not forgotten by loved ones at home and in comrades abroad.

Further information may be obtained from Colin Campbell, 6 C. W. No. 7 Charlotte street, Port Ellen, Islay, Scotland. This gentleman stated he would be very glad to hear from the people of the men who rest in Port Ellen and that no expense would be spared to grant their wishes so far as possible.

In extending you my sympathy for your loss I wish you to take comfort in the noble cause in which your son lost his life and his patriotism in offering himself to his country in his hour of need. We who later hope we may be spared until we can render some payment to the pirates who caused so many to go prematurely.

The Grim Reaper

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY

She kept her locks dark and lustrous with Soot Tea and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Soot Tea and Sulphur no one can tell because it's done so naturally so even preparing this mixture though at home is messy and trouble soire. At little cost you can buy a tea drug store the ready to use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients called Wicks Sage and Sulphur Compound. You just dampen a sponge or soft cloth with it and draw this through your hair taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears and after another application or two your hair becomes perfectly darkened again no longer is it a sign of old age and as we all agree a youthful and radiant appearance gets back once with Wicks Sage and Sulphur Compound and looks younger. This really is a preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and not a bad elixir. It is intended for the cure mitigate or prevention of disease.

night were riding the West Penn cars, having made four trips between Iron Bridge and Mount Pleasant and two between Mount Pleasant and Bridgeport. They then came to Scott-dale and missed the next car back but boarded the Old Meadow at 7:30.
Victor Vance was on the car. When he went to get off they blocked the rear platform and picked his pocket. He called for help and the motorman on the car came with the conductor and helped the men off the car. Vance notified Chief of Police McCudden. McCudden got an automobile and rounded the four up in the pipe mill yard.
Two of the men had registration card. Information was made by Robert Ryan, West Penn claim agent.

Lower Prices ALWAYS Prevail at Aaron's

And that means lower prices always prevail on the exclusive, quality Aaron lines of Furniture, Rugs, Carpets, Stoves and Homefurnishings than other stores ask for just the ordinary kinds.

We don't simply say that Aaron's always gives larger and better values for less money—but COMPARISON will always prove it.

The whole secret of our being able to offer quality Homefurnishings at these low prices is found in our immense four-store buying-power and our honest merchandising methods.

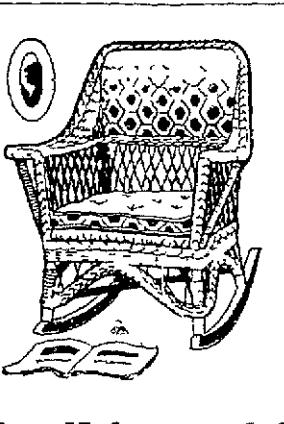

Through this strong four-store buying organization we are able to secure from the manufacturers special price concessions because of the tremendous volume of business we give them. That's why lower prices ALWAYS prevail at Aaron's. And with every article goes the usual Aaron "satisfaction guarantee."

A Husband's Advice to Other Husbands!

Save Your Wife Work This Way

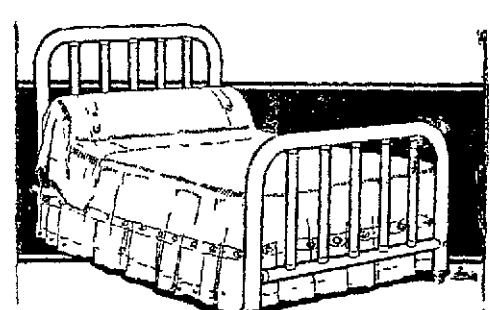

Through the day most men are absent from home and little know of the many duties that wives must attend to. Housework at the best is hard—and kitchen work the hardest of all.

But not when you have the Hoosier Cabinet in your kitchen. It lets a woman sit down comfortably to prepare the meals. It saves her miles of steps and hours of toil. It saves food by keeping flour, sugar, etc. in protected places and avoiding waste in measuring and mixing. In countless ways the Hoosier pays its cost.

Yet most of all, the Hoosier saves your wife's looks and strength. It prevents fatigue and what is more precious than her health? All this, remember, for only a very small cost. Hoosier prices are low. As low as $26.50 according to style and equipment. Your money all back if you are not delighted.

A Special Value in Beds!

This Large, Massive Iron Bed, only $9.75

Finished in white enamel giving it the appearance of Draft Board Ordered to Prepare for Registering Men Becoming 21.

BURGLARS CONTINUE TO OPERATE

Home of C. R. Ferner entered while Members or Family Sit on the Porch and $22 is Stolen; Eugene Warden, Borough Solicitor, Succumbs Hard.

Special to The Courier
MOUNT PLEASANT May 7—Glen Harrison and Robert Shumar have been accepted as auto mechanics in the special government service and will likely report about May 17 to Washington barracks, Washington, D. C. Another Mount Pleasant boy to be accepted into special service is Frank Burgess, colored bugler who will report soon to Fort Wayne Michigan.

To Register the Twenty-one.
Orders have been received by the local draft board to prepare for registration of those persons who have become 21 years old since June 5, 1917. The registration will be of men in District No. 6 and will be conducted by the local board on a date to be set by the President.

Burglars Still Active.
On Sunday evening while Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Ferner were sitting on their front porch, Eugene Warden, Borough Solicitor, was seen on the rear door and took $22.

At the monthly meeting of council last evening the resignation of Ralph Hurst as borough solicitor was accepted and Eugene Warden was elected in his stead. Residents of the township who have tapped the borough sewer were present and told how they got service. A motion was adopted to have the street commissioner, under the direction of the street committee, close the sewer off at the borough line unless the person, using the line, pay the fee to enter inside of 30 days. A petition was filed for a light on Sycamore street. All bills were ordered paid. The budget check for $221.50 was received, a covering receipt from his office for the past month.

For Red Cross.
An excellent program has been arranged for tonight at 8 o'clock at the opera house by the Institute Choral club, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Jones, of the vocal department and the orchestral club under the direction of Prof. J. Hunter Gamble. The proceeds of this concert will be given to the Red Cross chapter. Tickets may be exchanged at Morrison's jewelry store. A chorus of 40 voices will take part.

Other Notes.
Miss Ruth Queer underwent an operation at the Memorial hospital yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bungard of Leesington No. 3 spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Turner.

Miss Duffy of Belle Vernon, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Stoner.

Lieutenant Gordon Miller, with his wife, who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Free, gave a talk at the Re-Union Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

GROWING FAST.
Liberty Bond Club Has a Large Membership.
Is Connellsville patriotic? The best answer to that question is the large number of people who have joined the Liberty Bond club which has its headquarters at the First National Bank. Every member of the club has the privilege of buying a bond and paying for it in easy weekly installments. There is no initiation fee. Anybody who desires to help Uncle Sam is welcome. Prominent Scrantonian Tells How Master Medicine Gave Him Relief.

J. L. Velt of 303 Linden street Scranton past commander of Camp S. Sons of Veterans and captain of First company, Second regiment S. V. G. Pennsylvania brigade, said recently

I have suffered intensely for a long while from gastritis and indigestion. Whatever I ate seemed to produce bad after effects, such as gas in my stomach and nausea.

In fact, I was always or very greatly choked up from a gaseous, sour stomach as if my food fermented continually.

The trouble annoyed me no little and I became run down in every way. I lost strength and was nervous and depressed at times.

I heard about this Tanlac got some of it. I began improving after using only a few doses of Tanlac and I have been improving constantly ever since. I put the medicine to what I called a supreme test the other evening when I attended a banquet, and felt no ill after-effects from what I ate there.

This Tanlac is not only strengthening my digestion, but seems to soothe and strengthen my stomach.

Tanlac is now sold here by the Connellsville Drug Co.

BASEBALL MAGNATE NOW SERVING IN FRANCE WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES

This is the first photograph of Capt. T. L. Huston, part owner with Col. Jacob Ruppert of the New York American league baseball club, who is serving as a captain of engineers with the American expeditionary forces in France. Some of the engineers are now reported fighting with the British against the German drive. Whether or not Captain Huston is with them is not known. Though busy with his duties of war he finds time occasionally to think of baseball. Recently he wrote a letter from "Somewhere in France" in which he expressed his disapproval of many things his fellow baseball magnates have been doing recently. He impugned their spirit and said considering that the country was at war there was altogether too much talk of money and too many big trades.

BEST BACKSTOP RECORDS

A catcher who works in at least 100 games each season is worth a liberal salary. Last year's major league records show that these men passed the century mark behind the bat: National League: Killifer and Wingo, each 120 games, and Barfield, 100; American League: Schall and Sevarec, each 138 games; O'Neill, 127, and Almstrom, 119.

Those who caught between 90 and 100 games were Slagle of Detroit, Nunamaker of the Yankees, Miller of Brooklyn, Snyder of the Cardinals and Dragger of the Braves.

PING BODIE TALKS LIKE A PLAYER FULL OF PEPPER

"I am thirty years young and have about four or five years of major league baseball in me yet. If I hadn't been for a disagreement with Jimmy Colahan in 1914, I never would have come out of the big leagues. I weigh 15 pounds less today than when I reported to Connie Mack at Jacksonville last spring, and I know positively that I am in for a good season."

Ping Bodie was speaking. He had signed in two strenuous workouts at the Macon ball yard with all the enthusiasm of a schoolboy who has unshamed to make his school team, and Bodie did not hesitate to say that he was ready at that moment to play more baseball.

"I have always liked to play the game," continued Ping, "and for that reason it never has become difficult for

With so capable a player around as Ross Young, the Giants have not much cause to worry over the loss of Davey Robertson. If Young lands the right field position, it will be his first job in the major leagues. He made a wonderful record in the minors, leading the Western association in batting two years ago, and finishing second to Lary Lejole last year in the International League, with the splendid average of .357. His fielding is said to be on a par with his stickwork. He covers a great deal of ground, and is an excellent judge of drives and fly balls.

Means the Same Thing. "What's become of the old-fashioned sporting editor who called a left-handed pitcher a soubriquet?" "Oh, he's still up, and about, but I notice that he has an assistant who calls a left-handed pitcher a 'postage meter,'" Louisville Courier-Journal.

Yes Might Be Answer. Has Chicago the two best catchers in baseball? Ray Schalk of the White Sox, and Bill Killeen of the Cubs?

DIAMOND NOTES

Baseball fans are showing great interest in the world's series on the western front.

The Kansas City club has turned in fielder Joe Wagner over to the Louisville club.

Captain Huston thinks the magnates have failed to do their bit. Haven't they arranged to collect the war tax?

Connie Mack's refusal to pay Jake Munch the salary he demands may leave that young man to his coal business this season.

Bill Sherdell, the left-hander from whom the St. Louis Cardinals are expecting much, declares that Paddy Livingston made him a red pitcher.

Claire Goodwin and Jack Killian, former Coast league players, have joined the army medical service and are on duty at the Presidio, San Francisco.

Pitchers Milligan and Evans, who made the trip to the Pirates' training camp with the first squad, did not linger long, both being called to Uncle Sam's colors.

Manager Fielder Jones of the St. Louis Browns is crying for a left-handed pitcher, but where will he get one? There seems to be a sudden shortage of southpaws in both major leagues and particularly in the American.

Arthur Shafer, who used to play third base for the Giants, has again taken up the game. Shafer enlisted in the navy some time ago, and he is now captain of the baseball team at the naval training station at San Diego, Cal.

Mike Hogan is the name of a pitching recruit who is with the Giants. Manager McGraw thinks he has great possibilities.

Clark Griffith's Senators think they have found a way to "outhoover Hoover." They decided as means of getting in shape quickly to eat out the noonday lunch.

Jack Lewis of the Newark Internationals, who has been reported sold to several clubs, is out with a statement that he will accept no diamond engagement this season.

The Pirates have another, Joe Jackson. He is Lee King, a Pennsylvania miner. He started training in his bare feet, but Besedek soon converted him to the use of baseball shoes.

PETEY DINK—It Finally Did Quiet Pete's Nerves

The Confessions of a German Deserter

Written by a Prussian Officer
Who Participated in the Ravaging and Pillaging of Belgium

Copyright by Detroit Free Press

We were scarcely established when the French attacked en masse. The occupants of these trenches, whom we had re-enforced had already repulsed several of these attacks. They urged us to shoot and fired wildly themselves into the ranks of the advancing masses. We responded to the exhortations of the infantry officers: "Fire, fire harder, harder!"

We fired until the barrels of our guns became red-hot. The enemy turned. The victims of our fire already lying in heaps in No Man's Land between our lines and the enemy's were increased by hundreds. The attack was repulsed.

It is dark, and it rains and rains. All about us in the darkness are heard the wounded weeping, moaning, imploring. Their cries are augmented by other wounded closer by. All called for bandages, but we had none left. We tore strips from our muddy shirts and with them covered the gaping wounds. Men are dying constantly. There are no doctors, no bandages, nothing. The wounded must be assisted, but first the French must be repulsed.

The rain falls harder constantly and we are all wet to the skin. We shoot blindly into the night. The fluctuating fire of musketry becomes strong, then weaker, then strong again.

We plowmen are scattered among the infantry. My neighbor touches me. "Say, he calls."

"What do you want?" I ask. "Who are you?"

"Come here," he hissed. "It is eerie, alone in this devil's night."

"Why are you here? Will you murder me like those over there. Soon they will return from over there and the fun will be on again. Do you hear, the others weep?"

And he laughed.

Suddenly he started again: "I always shoot at them until they stop weeping. That is fun."

And again he laughed, maniacally, and louder than before.

I realized finally that this man had lost his reason. A man passed bringing ammunition and I asked him to fetch the commander at once. The officer arrived, accompanied by an infantry lieutenant. I met them and reported that my neighbor had been firing on the wounded, talking nonsense, and undoubtedly was insane. The lieutenant stepped between us.

"Can you see anything?" he asked. "See! No. But I hear them moaning and weeping. As soon as I hit one he is quiet for sleep."

The lieutenant nodded to me. He tried to take the gun from the man, but the latter seized it quickly and sprang back to cover. From there he fired while standing among the wounded, until a moment later, he himself fell, riddled by many bullets.

The drama had only a few spectators. It was hardly over before it was forgotten. Anything but sentiment.

The blind firing continued. The cries of the wounded became constantly louder.

Why? These wounded lying between the two fighting lines are exposed to the fire of both parties. No one can help them for it would be insanity to venture into No Man's Land.

Ever louder and with more heart-rending pleadings, the wounded called for the stretchers, for help, for water. At the most a curse or an oath is the only response.

Our trench was filled with several inches of water and underneath that mud. In this morass lay dead and wounded, thrown together. It became necessary to make room and so the dead were thrown over the ramparts. At one o'clock in the night men came with stretchers and took away some of the wounded, but for those wretches lying in No Man's Land there was no help.

CHAPTER VII.

To complete our misery, we received orders during the night to attack the French at 4:15 in the morning. We made our preparations under a pouring rain. Promptly at 4:15 we went over the top, jumping over corpses and wounded men. We were forced to retire before a hail of machine gun fire, and sustaining a large number of unnecessary casualties.

Hardly had we regained our trenches when the French attacked us. They came within three meters of our trench and here their attack broke down.

since, in spite of the superiority of numbers, the French could not defeat this little group of desperate men. We forgot everything around us and fought like bloodthirsty beasts, thinking of nothing else. Part of our men penetrated the hostile ranks and fought to retake the lost cannon. The enemy recognizing the danger, retreated, and tried to hold the conquered guns with all his energy. We continued to stab, to club, man for man; but the enemy held on to the batteries. Every cannoneer was surrounded by corpses, and every minute new victims were created. The artillerymen who were fighting with us tried to remove the breech blocks of the guns.

Three Germans fought four Frenchmen at the third gun which was just to my right. They were all that was left around that piece. At another gun 70 men lay dead or wounded. A plowman went to the mouth of this gun and with astounding calmness pushed shell after shell into the barrel, touched them off and ran. Friend and foe alike were torn by the terrible explosion. The gun was completely demolished. Seventy to eighty men were killed for nothing.

After an hour's fight, all the guns were once more in our possession. We were now able to approximate the terrible casualties in the battle for this battery. Dead and wounded by hundreds, infantry, cavalry, artillery and pioneers, covered the narrow strip of ground.

Once more we received re-enforcements. This time four regular companies of infantry had been taken away from another detachment. Even if a soldier takes part in everything, he can get only a very restricted view of what is going on and has absolutely no way of determining how the battle is going.

These re-enforcements had been taken from all different arms and late arrivals had been taken from a division which had been threatened exactly like ours was. This led us to conclude that we could only resist further attacks provided fresh troops reached us. If only we could get something to eat. But there seemed no way to relieve the hunger and thirst which tortured us.

Now, horses galloped up to remove the guns we had left, and at the same instant the French artillery opened a tremendous fire from guns of all calibers. The shells fell among the 30 teams comprising the column. Confusion reigned. Groups of six horses comprising each team sprang into the air, then ran in all directions, pulling their carriages with the wheels up behind them. Some of the terrified animals ran directly into the heaviest fire, only to be torn to shreds with their drivers.

The enemy now transferred his fire to the battery position which we occupied. For us it was only a question of advance or retreat. Retreat? No! The order came to retake the positions which we had lost at the opening of the battle and which the Frenchmen presumably had made ready to withstand a new attack. By this time we had been re-enforced with more cannoneers and the intense fight could begin anew.

We advanced over a wild field, covered by thousands upon thousands of torn human bodies. No shot fell; the only firing was the hostile artillery continuing to shell our battery positions. Neither the enemy's artillery nor infantry was turned upon us. This made us suspicious and our apprehension regarding what was to come increased as we were permitted to advance unopposed.

Suddenly there was turned loose upon us the fire from a multitude of machine guns. We threw ourselves on the ground and hunted cover. An instant later we again sprang up and continued our march. Once more we encountered destruction. By this time we had lost almost a third of our men and, exhausted, we halted.

Scarcely had we taken a position before we were attacked from the front and flank. We no longer had an adequate force to successfully resist this double blow, as the enemy, in greatly superior numbers, had practically crushed our force. The left wing was completely cut off and we saw our men throw up their hands and surrender. We who were in the center were unable to come to their assistance; our ranks were being decimated from minute to minute.

"Revenge for Sommepy," sounded in my ears.

The right wing broke and carried us with it in a wild flight. Direct retreat had been cut off for us, so we ran backward across an open field, each man for himself, with a heart bursting with horror and fear as the result of the enemy's murderous fire.

After running a long time we reached a hamlet northwest of Vitry-le-François. Without guns, helmets, or knapsacks, the few who had been able to save themselves gathered here.

As a result of this battle the French acquired a large amount of booty. All the guns which had been the center of much bitter fighting were lost. Of the hundreds upon hundreds of soldiers who participated in the battle, scarcely 100 were left. The others were all dead, wounded, or missing. This is what was done to the invincible war machine by the French people, who, before the struggle, we had branded as cowardly and degenerate!

CHAPTER VIII.

We now tried to gather by companies. Of our own company only 12 men remained. Presently others straggled in until there were 20 of us assembled. There is eager questioning everywhere as each man attempts to learn about his comrade or acquaintance. Few questions can be answered, however, as each man had thought only of himself in that flight.

Driven by hunger we approached the village. The first thing we did was to hasten to the wells and drink. We drank as if we wanted to fill ourselves up with enough water to last us the rest of our lives. Only here and there were we able to find anything to eat. A few beans were left in the gardens and we ate them eagerly, without waiting to wash or clean them.

PEOPLE NEGLECTED
IN CARE OF MOUTHSennco Tooth Paste Powerful To Save the Teeth and Prevent Diseases

"All" dressed up with a "hole in his shoe" was a bit of sarcasm a girl used at a young man friend whom she thought was not except his poor "hole" shoe. Right enough, tooth decay in man or woman is a "shabby pair of clothes" would spoil the appearance of the most elegant garments ever worn.

What about the teeth? Dress in all the dignity you please. If you open your mouth exposing a decayed set of teeth your attractiveness ends right there. That's a hole in the shoe for you. This applies both to men and women. Girls, and young men, you lose half the admiration which would be directed toward you if you have bad teeth. You can't be pleasing with a mouthful of decay. You can't be "attractive" either. The condition of the teeth have a telling influence on other organs of the body. Bad teeth affect the intestine, stomach, heart and even the eyes. Medical science shows that the teeth produce unhealthy conditions all over the body.

With Sennco Tooth Paste at your service—a scientifically prepared preventive—no fear need be had of tooth decay. There's no need of having a mouthful of decayed teeth. Used regularly on a set of good teeth the deadly germs have little chance to live. The Sennco Tooth Paste will help you to get rid of your dental troubles. But we don't want you to concentrate on the teeth and the mouth. Advanced cases should be treated by your dentist.

With Sennco Tooth Paste as a preventive. Ask your dentist if you should not pay all attention to your teeth. Of course we won't say any "Tooth Paste" can cure everything. If you already have it, your dentist is the doctor. Even if you are not with his terrible disease, Sennco Tooth Paste will help you to get rid of it, with your dentist's assistance. But we don't want you to concentrate on the teeth and the mouth. Advanced cases should be treated by your dentist.

A Sennco Tooth Paste is a preventive, is far better than to have to go through the trials of a cure. There's no need to be afraid of tooth decay. The probability is that you won't have to deal with foul and painful diseases. By taking excellent care of your teeth you will have a strong, intestinal, heart and eye, trouble. Take all precautions to keep the teeth healthy. It is the Sennco Tooth Paste, the latest discovery of dental science. Sample of Sennco free—if you wish it. Sennco Tooth Paste, Cincinnati, Ohio.

COLUMBUS WAS NO GLADDER TO SEE LAND THAN HOSPITAL UNIT

The ocean treated us very well; in fact, we encountered no really rough seas at all. But notwithstanding this, we sick, much to my humiliation, and I had counted on laughing at others who fell victim to the dreaded seas more, nautically speaking. I had, by all right the first day, but I had symptoms of internal dissensions. Just as the earthquake presages a volcanic eruption, so did I receive notice that something was coming up. I remember standing along the rail one evening watching another fellow throw himself over it and literally unloosen himself to the waves. A dozen or more of his comrades were having the time of their lives guying him. This hurt my feelings, for I knew that sooner or later I would ornament the same rail, so I ventured to remonstrate with them. I said something to the effect that I considered it the height of cruelty to make fun of a fellow-being in distress. I had no sooner gotten the words out of my mouth than I, too, made a dash for the rail. After that I stayed in my hammock or kept close to a place from which I could see the depths of the ocean. They have little ladders along the edge of the deck so you can climb up, hang on to your toes and feed the little fishes. I know every step is one of these ladders.

I remember seeing two vessels, 16 porpoises and 11,183,214 waves between where we started from and where we landed. I believe, at that, I missed count on some of the waves. The porpoises I recognized an instant after I saw them, for I happened to be standing near a naturalist who knew them at a glance; otherwise I might have made the same mistake as the fellow who called them sea lions or the guy who thought they were submarines.

"We wore life belts all the time, except when we slept, and a few timorous ones, didn't discard them even then. The orders said, "Life belts must be worn at all times," but the fact we had made up of a half dozen big slates of cork fitted in casings that hung about your necks would surely have worn holes into our interiors had we slept with them on.

"Concerts were given every afternoon by a cavalry band, and at night the men gathered in the mess halls below deck and played cards, sang and played or wrote letters. Everybody had to be in his bunk or hampered by 9 o'clock.

"One evening toward the end of the trip, to vary the program, somebody announced at mess, for the amusement of the men, there will be a murder in No. 2 mess hall tonight at 7:30. Everybody is cordially invited to attend."

"I did see some glorious sunsets and the wonderfully pretty sunrise, but the most inspiring sight of all was the first glimpse of land—LAND! Marco Polo, or whoever the gink was who saw the olive twig float by and later landed the shores of America from Columbus' flagship, couldn't have been any better pleased than I was to see those mountains away off in the distance, almost hidden in the haze. And the more I think of it the more I admire Columbus. It took him 30 days to sail onward over the ocean blue for three months, without more "amenities" than a trench that you wouldn't slip off the brink of the world some sunny morning, but even if Christopher hadn't discovered me, I figure it would have been but a matter of time until we had sailed the other way and discovered Europe."

"Landing in England, we packed up to go back but instead spent the night aboard ship. Next morning we encamped in one of those fancy little English railroad cars and were taken across the country to a channel port to sail for France. England, we all agreed, is very pretty, and her railroads should not be judged by the look of the cars. The engineers are regular "Dandy" Hickories for speed, and were sailing for France, we had our first experience with "real" camping, wrote about these again, for I think I could write a book on the subject."

OLD AGE A CRIME

Some people are young at 60—red-cheeked, ruddy and vigorous. Others are old at 40—joints beginning to stiffen a bit; step beginning to lag and lose its springiness; occasional touches of pain in the back, feel tired without cause, and possibly a twinge of rheumatic pain.

In most cases these are the danger signals to warn you that the kidneys are not promptly doing their work of throwing off the poisons that are always forming in the body. To neglect these natural warnings is a crime against yourself. If you have these symptoms you can find prompt relief in GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. For more than 200 years this has been the recognized remedy for kidney and bladder ailments.

GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules are imported direct from the laboratories at Haarlem, Holland. Get them at your druggist's. Do not take a substitute. In boxes three sizes—Adv.

COMING CHAUTAUQUA WILL PRESENT MANY STAR ATTRACTIONS

Kryl's Band, War Lecturers, Personal Delegates of Cardinal Mercier, Musicians, Etc., on Program.

Eighteen star attractions are offered on the Redpath Chautauqua program announced for Connellsville, June 20-26. Probably the greatest event of the week will be band day, with Bohemian Kryl, world famous cornetist, at the head of an organization of 20 musicians. The Kryl band will be heard in concerts, afternoon and evening.

The spirit of the times is well reflected in the 1918 program. Three of the headlining lecturers are Captain Martin D. Hardin, who returned recently from a trip of investigation for the Red Cross in France; Private Arthur K. Herman, severely wounded at Vimy Ridge while fighting with the 13th Canadian Black Watch, and Father Jean Deveille, Cardinal Mercier's personal delegate to America.

Certain of the musical companies, such as the Liberty Girls, on the opening day, and the Lovat Concert company, with noted Scottish artists, will appeal strongly to the patriotic.

Princess Watabwask, Indian soprano, will be a favorite with chautauqua fans. Appearing in native costume she will relate legends and sing. "The Billy Sunday of Business," as Harry L. Fogelman is known, has been secured for an address that will be worth real money.

Gay Zonola MacLaren, who is capable of giving 20 modern plays on a moment's notice, is coming for an entertainment.

The New York Madrigal Singers, a mixed quartet; William Ralphy Benét, lecturer; the Sala company, featuring the former cellist to the Court of Spain; James Elcho Fiddes, Scottish tenor; Sidney Landen in impersonations of great literary men, and More, the magician, also are announced.

THE PARAMOUNT

"Corn-Less Day" for Feet, Every Day

Use "Get-It," the Great Corn Discovery! Makes Corns Peel Right Off!

Look at the illustration below. See the two fingers peeling off a corn as though it were a banana peel. And the man is smiling while doing it. All done painlessly and joyfully. The moment "Get-It" impersonates the wonderful heroine in this production, which tells of Russia's fight for freedom from the rule of the czars, and of the glorious battalion of warrior women who fought gallantly in the trenches after the men had given up in despair. Miss Storey represents the leader of this brave band of women. Miss Storey always possesses dramatic ability of a high order, and as the result her Mary in "The Legion of Death," is a marvel of inspiration and power. No other actress possesses in such a measure the fire, the dramatic intensity, the fervor necessary to portray the fighting spirit in Russia's woman, the refusal to accept the tyranny and dishonesty as the portion of a nation. Great scenes of the conflict in Russia are shown, both of the rioting in the streets, the fighting on the battle front. Tomorrow, Monroe Salisbury will be starred in "The Red, Red Heart," a five-part Bluebird feature. Thursday, Alice Brady, the screen favorite, will be seen in "The Trap," a World feature.

THE SEASIDE

"MY HONOLULU GIRL"—Billed to hold the boards at the Solson theatre, opening today and tomorrow, is a neat little musical comedy with a clever cast, numbering more than 25. It is staged among the sunny scenes of the Hawaiian Islands, along the shores of the blue waters of the Pacific, where the natives jazily sit in the soft warm southern sun, making the pretty things for which Hawaiians are noted. It is staged in three scenes, the first being in Honolulu, showing an American hotel, framed in among the gorgeous ferns palms and foliage of the tropical isle, with the turquoise waters of the Pacific and the mountains in the background. The second is the dock at Honolulu, with a big ocean liner anchored at her landing, being put in readiness before starting on a sight-seeing tour among the different islands. The third is the Island of Hawaii, showing the Kilauea volcano, one of the sight-seeing points of interest of the world.

ARCADE THEATRE

Charles W. Boyer's "Girls from Loveland" is one of the best shows that has been at the Arcade theatre. There is no drag of unnecessary stalling to prolong the show, but each number is well produced. Dick Mador is the premier comedian, with Dave Whitley a close second. Hal Ring, known as the straight man, renders several delightful selections, dances gracefully with Anna Britton, besides taking an active part in the run of the play. Fra Ring leads several numbers, singing best in "Mississippi." Billy O'Connell always pleases with his wonderful voice. The other girls in the chorus are Grace O'Connell, Jean Mack, Julia Ryer and Jane Winston. On the screen, a feature Fox comedy. Don't forget Wednesday and Thursday, "Vengeance and the Woman."

OPERAHOUSE THEATRE

"TWO GUN MAN"—A Triangle drama, features the popular star, William S. Hart. A good Strand comedy will also be shown. Tomorrow, Virginia Pearson appears in the Fox drama, "A Daughter of France." If you were a beautiful French girl of noble blood and were caught in the German rush into France, how would you act? And, furthermore, what would you do if a German officer made love to you while his soldiers were robbing the village and insulting women? Thursday, Margarita Fischer appears in "The Richest Girl" by the supreme court.
